

STEVE GUETTERMANN
Montana Water Center
101 Huffman Hall, Montana State University
Bozeman, Montana 59717
(406) 994-1772
stephen.guettermann@montana.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Corporate Support Representative

Montana PBS
Bozeman, Montana (2005-2007)

Pollution Prevention (P2) Specialist

Region 8 P2 Information Center
Bozeman, Montana (2003-2005)

Freelance writer

Ashland, Oregon and Bozeman, Montana (1983-2002)

General Manager

Herbs for Kids (HFK)
Bozeman, Montana (1996-1999)

Education Coordinator

Montana Conservation Corps (MCC)
Bozeman, Montana (1992-1996)

STRENGTHS AND SKILLS

- Twelve years experience in business and non-profit management
- Excellent research and writing skills – emphasis on education
- Effectively networks with government officials, scientists, educators, and business owners
- Proven initiative to develop plans that solve problems and accomplish objectives
- Works effectively on concurrent projects; team player able to develop key relationships
- Able to present many types of information to diverse groups of people
- Professional training includes project management, communications and proposal writing

EDUCATION

Kansas State University – Masters of Science; Science Education
Kansas State University – Bachelors of Science; Natural Resources Management